BRITT AND "BAT" READY TO BEGIN

Fighters Will Commence Active Training This Week.

EACH LOOKS FOR VICTORY

FIGHT WORLD CENTERS INTEREST ON COMING BATTLE.

San Francisco, Aug. 19.—Batting Nelson reached town last night. For the past few weeks he has been living in a lumber camp near Loyalton, and says that when he heard that it was at last arranged for him to meet Britt in the ring he thought the news was too good to be true, as the best he had hoped for was a twenty-round bout, so he could hardly realize that he had been matched to go forty-five rounds, which everyone agrees will decide which is the better man.

Nelson was accompanied by Billy Nolan this morning, and Nolan said that he would take his charge down to Colma to show him the lay of the land where the pugilist is to be built. Nelson will not attempt to do any work for a couple of days, but intends to get down to business in a day or so. He says that he weighs 145 pounds, but that it is all good, healthy flesh and just what he wants. He says that he has come down to 130 pounds from a higher notch than he will tip the beam at today, and anticipates not the slightest trouble in making the weight at which he will meet Britt, which will be better than he ever was in his life.

Bat Asks About Forfeits.

The first thing Nelson asked Nolan was if the forfeits were all posted so there would be little chance of a slip-up or postponement. Nolan has informed Coffroth that in case the match was not pulled off as contracted for, that club's forfeit would certainly be claimed, and as Britt has already expressed himself in the same manner, it looks as if there was not much chance of Coffroth changing the date on account of the request from the natives sons. He received word from L. B. Wilson, acting secretary of the celebration at Sacramento, yesterday, asking when a committee would be organized to see him. It is quite likely that this committee will be here within the next twenty-four hours, and although Coffroth has not yet accepted himself, it is still more than likely that there will be no change of date for the fight. Many persons, and among them native sons, are inclined to ridicule the request of the committee from the order to change the fight date. It is suggested that it is not the sentiment of the entire order, but simply an indication by the hotel and saloon men, not to speak of a few gamblers of Sacramento, who are afraid that a few dollars will be spent there Sept. 9.

Britt Also Ready for Training.

Britt also arrived from Lake Tahoe today. After volunteering a few statements about the grandeur of Lake Tahoe and the wonderful scenery, he came up here for the improvement of a fighter's condition, he was asked to say something favoring directly upon the fight. "Believe me, which is my favorite introduction to a bit of conversational delectation, 'I know what I'm doing. I told you some time ago that I would not let this fight slip through my fingers, and I am willing to put my ability to lick him to the test in the ring—not over the telephone. During this siege of training I am going to make it an emphatic point not to say more than is absolutely necessary. I'll leave it to the other side to make the noise and I'll be out at Sheehan's tomorrow, large wads of wood and saying nothing."

Is Business With Jimmy.

"Didn't you decide to take on Nelson rather suddenly?" "I'm business," was Jimmy's reply, "and after careful consideration I concluded that Coffroth's offer was the best from a financial standpoint. I don't talk about stalling had no effect on me, and I just took my own time in settling the question. The number of rounds is not going to make any difference to me. Forty-five rounds is the same as five hundred, because I fought this fellow before and I know his capacity. I'll be out at Sheehan's tomorrow, large wads of wood and saying nothing."

This morning the champion will spend most of the time at home with "mother," and at 3 this afternoon will go through some gymnastic stunts with Kreling at the club. He begins training out at Sheehan's tomorrow. Excepting a little boxing in the open air to get accustomed to the sun, his course of training will differ in no way from his previous training. The same faces will be seen at Sheehan's.

EUREKA IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Association Football Players in That

Town Already Claim Daynes

Trophy Cup.

(Special to The Herald.)

Eureka, Utah, Aug. 19.—Football enthusiasts who read in The Herald today that the Salt Lake Association football club had again organized for the coming season are highly pleased, as the best game played last season was between the miners and the first named organization.

From the manner in which the Eureka bunch is showing up and from the fact that today is the first time in which it is not a little stronger this year, followers of the game feel confident that the miners will bring that Daynes cup to Eureka. All the players here are enthusiastic over the fact that a cup has been offered and it is expected that after the general meeting of the club next Monday evening practice will begin in earnest and that immediately after the close of the baseball season a game can be arranged with the Secretary Shedd's bunch of players.

Oldfield has appeared there he will make the other big cities of South America. "That will close my racing career," he said Sunday. "I want to get into some other line where there is not such a great risk. I will come back home and engage in something else."

ANOTHER 9 FOR SPOKANE

Harry Green Announces His Intention of Putting a Club in Coast League for Next Season.

Spokane, Aug. 19.—Harry Green announces that it is his intention to go into baseball next year. Mr. Green will attend the meeting of the Pacific Coast league at Portland, Aug. 24, and it is understood that he has been requested to represent Spokane by Henry Harris of the San Francisco team, and by others well up in the management of the coast league.

Mr. Green is a man of much experience, not only in baseball, but in the sporting world generally. He is the owner of some of the best running horses the coast has produced, and during the winter and spring represents from his stable captured several handsome purses.

The team of 1905 was directed by Mr. Green. This aggregation contained such players as Lou Nardye, now billed for big league company next season; Durett, now with Toledo in the American association; Huelsman, now with Washington in the American league; Gus Klotz, Zalusky and Jack Hendricks, all of whom have made their mark in the game since leaving Spokane. That aggregation finished third in the race for the pennant, which was won by Butte in a heart-breaking series at Seattle in the last week of the season.

"I want to get back in baseball because I like the game," said Mr. Green. "I don't care if I don't make any money at it. But I believe that a new league with some of the largest coast cities would pay. I also believe it is the only solution to the present problem in baseball here. It's the only kind the people here will patronize, and if I am to enter baseball again it would only be in such a league."

JIMMY FLYNN TRAINING

FOR GO WITH ROWAN

Silverton, Colo., Aug. 19.—Jimmy Flynn, of Pueblo Indian middleweight pugilist of Colorado, went into training here today for the 2-round glove contest in which he is to participate here on Labor day, September 4, with Johnny Rowan, of Salt Lake City, is his opponent. Flynn is being trained by Charles Spicer, a local pugilist, who understands the requirements of a successful prizefighter, and Flynn will undoubtedly go into the ring in fine condition. The fight will be for a $1,000 purse, and two-thirds of the gate receipts. Considerable money has been put up. Rowan will arrive here Thursday and go into training at once. Both men are in the professional class and have good records.

BILLY BOLLES LEAVES

FOR AUSTRALIA

Billy Bolles, the well known cycle trainer, who has taken care of Iver Lawson for years, left last evening for Australia. This is Bolles' fourth trip to the antipodes. He will leave on the next boat from San Francisco and arrive in Australia a month ahead of Lawson, who departs next month. Lawson has a good contract to ride in Australia this year, and Bolles will look after the champion's training, as usual.

Bountiful 10, Hardwares 3.

The Bountiful baseball team defeated the Salt Lake Hardware nine yesterday by a score of 10 to 3. The batteries were, for Bountiful, Grant and Shields, and for Hardwares, Kiddie and Tanner. There was a good sized crowd present and much enthusiasm over the game.

The manager of the Bountiful team says it was to have played Kayville yesterday, but the latter team backed down, so the Bountiful team claims the county championship.

HAS DENVER SAUCER TRACK

Gourley Will Show Denver Cycle Fans

How Game Should Be Conducted.

A deal has been practically consummated whereby W. R. Gourley, until recently of Salt Lake, has secured control of the Denver saucer track. Mr. Gourley has just returned from Denver and while there he made an offer to the men who own the Denver track for a long time lease, with a view of conducting cycle races in the Denver town as they should be. Mr. Gourley said the matter was entirely up to him as to whether he would accept the proposition and that he had decided to do so. He also announced that he will track saucer races in the city.

The Denver track was built last spring and after a few weeks' attempt at races it was given up. From all that can be learned from the Salt Lake riders who appeared there, the track was a failure through gross mismanagement. The people at the head of it were afraid to spend a little money to get good riders and the class of men competing were not fast enough to qualify with a first year's crop of novices in Salt Lake.

It is Mr. Gourley's intention to work in conjunction with Manager Henry W. Gourley, who has been in the track business and has some of the men he has here as drawing cards in Denver. It is hard to see how the Denver track can be anything else than a success if properly taken care of.

Although the finishes were all close, the favorite won in straight heats this summer. As Hurst was a good sized crowd present and much enthusiasm over the game.

The manager of the Bountiful team says it was to have played Kayville yesterday, but the latter team backed down, so the Bountiful team claims the county championship.

DAVIS FAILS TO LAND CRUM

Agrees to Throw Him Three Times in an Hour—Another Match Arranged.

(Special to The Herald.)
Idaho Falls, Ida., Aug. 19.—Tom Davis of England and John Crum, a wrestler from Pocatello, met last night on the mat for a purse of $200. Crum was known as "Kid" Watson of Pocatello, the bantam champion of the state, while Davis received advice from his brother, Fred Ferguson of this place refereed the match.

The match was the result of a challenge issued by Davis to throw any man in the state three times within an hour. This challenge was accepted by Crum, and the match was arranged. Both contestants entered the ring at 10 o'clock and were apparently in the best of condition. Two minutes later Referee Ferguson called the men together and they immediately sparred for holds. Quickly as Crum changed Davis' feet and extracted himself from his holds, Davis was cool and collected up to the first fall, which occurred in twenty-two minutes, when Davis threw him. Crum, by his work and from the fact that he is an Idaho man, was the favorite. The second fall was secured by Crum with a half-Nelson, but after the hold was secured it took three minutes of steady work by the Pocatello lad before Davis' shoulders touched the mat. In the opinion of local observers, Crum's work places him in the front rank of wrestlers, weighing 200 pounds and is a perfect specimen.

SAYS HE JOBBED OLD FITZ

Doctor Under Arrest Admits He Fixed

Tom Sharkey to Appear as if Fouled.

Portland, Aug. 19.—Dr. B. Brookes Lee, formerly of San Francisco, and at present residing at 307 Market street in this city, was arrested yesterday by Detective Joe Day, who alleges that Lee is a notorious doctor and promises to make it his business to fix fights for him.

Lee is the man who was charged with having placed Tom Sharkey, the sailor pugilist, in such a condition that he would appear to have been fouled by Fitzsimmons in their memorable fight at San Francisco, about seven years ago. When questioned here, Lee said: "They may call me a malpractitioner all they please. I fixed Sharkey up to look as though he had been fouled. Well, that is something I do not care to reveal, but I will assert that it was done. Fitzsimmons was entitled to the decision and I was paid $5,000 for the part I played in the affair."

"I do not recall the mighty Cox, fighting umpire—so alleged—but say, pugilistic umpires have been numerous since the game evolved from town hall, cat ball or what not," says Charles Lamar. "The man with the courage to enforce his rulings makes the ideal umpire."

"It's a poor job for the amateurs with too much cerebral spread of sail. Goldsby, who umpired in the Southern league some years ago, was well educated and as game as a pebble. In 1885 he played left field for Atlanta and did it brilliantly. Once in Macon he met an ambitious incompetent posing as an umpire, whose work on balls and strikes was fierce. He gave it to Goldsby good and hard. In the third inning, while at bat, Goldsby whispered: 'Say, you big mutt, you have soaked me enough on strikes, and if you don't give me a square deal now I'll drag you under that grand stand after this game and take a fall out of your hide.' This arbitrator was on and Goldsby walked. The next day the alleged umpire was missing."

"Honest John Kelly and Tim Hurst are the boys to engage in a tussle with any player at any old time and in any place. Once when the Cleveleans, under Tebeau, met the Brooklyn in the field catching fungo flies. As Hurst stepped on the field a ball went over Jack's head. O'Connor started for the ball, but Hurst waved him back. Jack gave no heed, and Pat Tebeau yelled, 'Get that ball, Jack! Hurst is here today, and he's chewing the rag goes.' Did he go and get it? Well, did he?"

"Once John Kelley walked to the pitcher's box and knocked Buffington out. It was tickled him to see him tread on the toes of Kelley or Hurst."

CURTIS TO MANAGE RACES

D. A. & M. Society Appoints Manager

State Fair Grounds.

President J. G. McDonald of the Deseret Agricultural & Manufacturing society announced yesterday that he had secured Harry C. Curtis to take full charge of the horse racing programme at the state fair this fall. The Deseret Agricultural & Manufacturing society will be a novelty race for country boys. The rules of the race will be that each contestant must go to the judges' stand and from thence pick out the horses to be walked an eighth of a mile, then trotted or paced, finishing in 2 minutes.

The programme for the racing has not been arranged yet, but probably will be in the near future.
